

In my “To Read” shelf in my office is a book I’ve read now at least 3 times, and every couple of years now I’ll pick it up and read portions of it and drink from it’s wisdom – Other than the Bible, it’s the book I keep returning to over and over again, The Pursuit of God by A.W. Tozer.

I have more than one copy of the book, mainly because I’m the kind of reader that marks up his books, bends the corners of pages and totally mess up the appearance of a book! I sometimes will write favorite thoughts in the empty pages in the front or back of a book for quick reference in the future or use note paper and slip them in the cover for future reference...

So I thought I would post those "favorite" thoughts for a Wednesday thought for you...

“The man who has God for his treasure has all things in ONE!”

“It is more than a doctrine to behold... but a life to be ENJOYED... every moment of every day!”

“At the heart of the Christian message is GOD himself waiting for His redeemed children to push in to conscious awareness of His PRESENCE!”

“SELF is the OPAGUE VEIL that hides the face of God from us!”

“The VSIBLE becomes the enemy of the INVSIBILE...”

“GOD is the great ALL!”

“It is the PRESENT voice (of God) which makes the written WORD... all powerful... the Word is alive because God is alive!”

“The Bible will never be a LIVING BOOK to us until we are convinced that God is articulate in the universe... now, today!”

“FAITH is the continuous gaze of a soul upon a saving God!”

“Jesus never uttered OPINIONS!”

“The meek man cares not at all who is greater than he, for he has long ago decided that the esteem of the world is not worth the EFFORT!”

These are just a few, but there is so much more in this little book. If you’ve not read it, read it and if you haven’t read it in a while... pick it up again!

Be Strong, Be Courageous, Be Fearless – and remember...

Christ IS All!
